One last question: did anyone contact you to license the images for use in English language newspapers?

Hi Gene,

I'm a journalist based in Canada. I recently came accross some media articles about the nude photos you took in the streets in Russia recently. I also saw this report in the English press: <http://www.mirror.co.uk/news/world-news/young-women-who-stripped-naked-5391307>

I'm trying to see if that article is accurate.

I noticed that it cites a different photographer as the person who took the photos, whereas the Russian reports list you as the photographer. Are these your photos?

I was also curious if other information in the story is accurate? It lists the names of the women. Are those correct? And is it correct that the women lost their jobs as a result of the photos?

I'm trying to determine the real story of the photos and would be grateful for any information you can provide.
Thanks!

Best regards,
Craig
