BRILLIANT. Let's shift it to the top.

We've got confirmation on the copy CEN supplied for the "Lucita Sandoval" story:

A female Argentinian teacher who had sex with a 16-year-old pupil is facing the sack after the student secretly took a video of himself after getting her to turn round.

In the video the 16-year-old boy who was wearing a soccer shirt is seen smiling enthusiastically and giving the camera the thumbs up symbol before panning around to show he is having sex with the curvaceous Lucita Sandoval, 26.

Later on it seems as if the teacher realises the boy has been filming her but she is too carried away to do anything about it and afterwards he had told her he had deleted it. But that was not true and instead he had shown it to pals.

The teacher has several times faced disciplinary hearings at the school in the city of Santiago del Estero, in the north-central Argentine province of the same name over inappropriate relationships with students.

But until now there had been no consequences as nothing had been proven. Now however, education officials said that because there is clear proof of abuse they will be forced to act.

The teenage boy, who has not been named, had shared the pornographic clip lasting a total of 23 minutes with friends on the social media site WhatsApp after which it quickly went viral across the country.

The woman who is teaching English at the school has so far not commented on the scandal and is currently on suspension from work.
