Amazingly they have sent this story through

Pic shows: School in Ceska Lipa where the teacher worked.
A school Miss who went to a porn casting and was fired after her pupils spotted it online claims she was drugged by filmmakers.
The Czech teacher known only as Lucie, 35, from the town of Ceska Lipa in the northwest of the Czech Republic, had gone to the capital city Prague where she made the 40-minute video for porn site czechcasting.com.

The video starts with the blonde mum-of-two sitting on a couch and being asked questions by another woman offscreen.
She tells the interviewer sheâ€™s into fitness, is separated and has two children before saying she would never do porn because of her relatives.

She is later seen rubbing oil over herself before having sex with a man.
The video was then found by her pupils who began sharing it until a parent came across it and told the school.

Mum Lenka Hrdinova, 37, said: "I do not want to judge the teacher because I do not know why she did it.

"But it is not all right when 15-year-old children see it and gossip about it.

"She had intercourse with a complete stranger for money in front of camera and that is not in accordance with the educational role which should be offered by teachers."

Now teacher Lucie has spoken out saying she was tricked into doing the video.

Talking to local TV she said: "I was looking for an extra job and I found some advertisement looking for toned figures for a photo shooting.

"I thought it was for underwear.

"I think they drugged me with cocaine.

"I am sure that something was there."

"My behaviour was changing and I felt very relaxed and comfortable.

"I would not be able to do something like this in normal circumstances."

Appalled headmaster Petr Jonas told local media: "As soon as we learnt about this we had no other choice than to say goodbye to her."

(ends)Â Â

Now - to add to it, the only pix they have are grabs of said video AND they've actually sent us the porn video!

Someone shut them down. I'll go to Austria myself and just shut them the fuck down
